QuoteWerks Exceeds Revenue Forecasts With Release of Version 4.7

Aspire Technologies, Inc. Sales of QuoteWerks exceed fiscal year 2011 forecasts.

ORLANDO, FL (Vocus/PRWEB) February 10, 2012 — Aspire Technologies, Inc. an Orlando, Florida based provider of business software services announces that Fiscal Year 2011 results have exceeded forecast with an almost 13% year over year growth in revenue.

“QuoteWerks has built our business into the market leader for quote/proposal software by always listening to our customers and then implementing what they need”, said company President & CEO John C. Lewe IV, “It is highly rewarding for us to see this phenomenal growth coincide with our release of the largest series of updates in over a decade.”

The better than expected growth coincides with the company’s release of its latest version 4.7 of QuoteWerks, along with the 1.3 release of the highly successful QuoteValet online quote delivery, acceptance, and payment system, and the QuoteWerks Etilize 2.0 rich product content subscription service.

“QuoteWerks level of support is fantastic” according to Mike Tolfree, Manager IData Visual Systems, “Often times we seek out their advice on offerings outside of QuoteWerks core products because we highly value their expertise and input with regards to quoting and the sales order process.”

“Our sales, technical, and development teams meet every day to discuss what we need to do to respond to our customers’ current needs and develop features that anticipate their future needs” stated Brian Laufer Vice President at Aspire, “The result has been dramatic upgrades in functionality in record timeframes at no additional cost for our customers.”
